

"Fun, fearless, and effing great."—*Time Out New York

ensemble ACJW

The Academy—a program of Carnegie Hall, The Juilliard School, and the Weill Music Institute in partnership with the New York City Department of Education

Ensemble ACJW is an inspirational collective of young professional musicians who are fellows in a two-year program that supports them in building careers as top-quality performers, innovative programmers, and dedicated teachers who fully engage with the communities in which they live and work.

Visit acjw.org or e-mail info@acjw.org for more information.

- Performances at Carnegie Hall, The Juilliard School, and other venues in and around New York City
- Opportunities to engage with schools and communities
- Professional development in artistic excellence, education, advocacy, and leadership
- Collaborations and performances with acclaimed professionals in the music industry, including musicians, conductors, presenters, journalists, educators, and composers
- A weekly stipend and health benefits

Visit acjw.org to apply online.

Application Deadline: December 1, 2013

Auditions take place March 10–14, 2014, in New York City.

CARNEGIE HALL

Juilliard

Weill Music Institute