

Future
Music
Project

weekly workshops

Calling all instrumentalists, vocalists, MCs, composers, and digital music producers ages 14-19 to participate in free workshops at Carnegie Hall and perform in a monthly Studio 57 Live concert series.

Free Afterschool Workshops

Wednesdays and Thursdays | 4 PM-6:30 PM
Resnick Education Wing at Carnegie Hall
154 West 57th Street | Manhattan

Songwriting

Learn the craft of songwriting and arranging for instruments and voice.

Digital Music Production

Work with producers, musician, and DJs to create original music, learn introductory recording engineering techniques, and produce full-length albums.

Future Music Project Sampler Pack

Sample both workshops and gain basic songwriting, recording, and performance skills.

Online applications are available now. For more information, email futuremusicproject@carnegiehall.org or call 212-903-9625.

Carnegie Hall and Future Music Project are committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities. Future Music Project welcomes applicants with disabilities who are qualified, with or without reasonable accommodations. If you are an applicant with a disability who needs reasonable accommodations to complete this application, or if you have questions regarding reasonable accommodations, please contact futuremusicproject@carnegiehall.org.

Lead support for Future Music Project is provided by Nicola and Beatrice Bulgari and The Harold W. McGraw, Jr. Family Foundation.

Major funding is provided by Ameriprise Financial and MetLife Foundation.

Public support is provided by the City of New York through the Administration for Children's Services and New York City Council Speaker Corey Johnson.

Carnegie Hall is a partner in The Door's Youth Opportunity Hub, funded [in part] by the New York County District Attorney's Criminal Justice Investment Initiative (CJII).

carnegiehall.org/FutureMusicProject

Photos by Fadi Kheir.

